ORMONDE'S TRANSFER.

Ormonde, St. Carlo and Mr. McDonough's broodmares were leased to Mr. Haggin instead of being sold to him. The San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman says of this important transaction: "Mr. Haggin has entered the English market with his yearlings and is annually shipping a large consignment of them there to be sold at auction. He has found that those by English and Australian sires sell best, and with that business foresight which has enabled him to become one of the foremost millionaires of the world, he concluded that what the wealthy Englishmen desired he would try to furnish. Superintendent John Mackay, than whom no more practical or more successful horse breeder exists, is certain that when handled in the manner the Rancho del Paso stallions are, Ormonde will prove a sure foal getter, leading experts having decided after a thorough microscopical examination that the horse is in perfect health and vigor. Rancho del Paso has some of the greatest broodmares in America, and should the deal be made and the consignment of 1901 from this farm to the English market contain a few of the get of Ormonde, together with those of Goldfinch, Golden Garter, Artillery and other well-known sires now owned by Mr. Haggin, we may expect to see the highest average ever obtained at a sale of California bred horses, consequent profit to the venture and additional fame to our state as a horse-breeding locality."

Last Sunday's San Francisco Chronicle says of the deal: "The contemplated deal in regard to the transfer of all thoroughbreds owned by W. O. B. McDonough at Menlo Stock Farm to Rancho del Paso was consummated on Friday, and the necessary papers have been forwarded to J. B. Haggin for his signature. John Mackay and W. O. B. McDonough had a long consultation on Friday, and all details were satisfactorily adjusted. The deal will result in the temporary breaking up of Menlo Park, as, although J. B. Haggin has not purchased the McDonough horses, he has secured a long lease."

"In view of the grand record of Flying Fox, grandson of Ormonde, the magnitude of the present deal will be understood by students of breeding. Rancho del Paso will now have Ormonde, the 'horse of the century,' and three of his sons in Goldfinch, Orsini and Ossary. As Orme, a son of Ormonde, leads all the winning sires in England this year by more than $100,000, the wisdom of securing this blood for a big breeding establishment like Rancho del Paso cannot be overestimated."

"Ormonde is now about fifteen years old, and is admittedly the grandest-looking thoroughbred in all America."

"Ormonde will have a greater opportunity at Rancho del Paso," said W. O. B. McDonough, "and he may get more foals. At all events, I am confident that Ossary will make a great reputation in the stud. He is by Ormonde and was highly tried as a colt."

"Mr. McDonough spent $250,000 in his breeding venture at Menlo Park."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Mesmerist started in thirteen races, meeting all the cracks of the two-year-old division, barring only Chacornac, and never finished outside the money. He was first in nine races, second in three and third in one. His debut was made in the First Part of the Double Event, in which he ran second to Prince of Melbourne. His second start was in the Foam Stakes, which he won. His other stake victories were the Second Part of the Double Event, the McGrathiana, the Fleischmann, the First Part of the Grand Union Hotel, the Dash, the Autumn, the Great Eastern Handicap and the Junior Champion. He finished second to David Garrick in the Great Trial, second to Plucky in the First Attempt Stakes, and third to Maribert and Gonfalon in the second part of the Grand Union Hotel Stakes. His winnings up to date amount to $39,307.50. After his victory in the Junior Champion his owners, Messrs. Bromley & Co., wisely decided to retire him for the season. It is to be regretted that he and Chacornac, the Futurity winner, did not meet, for had he defeated the speedy son of Juvenal he would have had an even greater claim to championship honors. He has speed and weight-carrying ability, and in his races seemed to show that he could stay as well. Unless all signs fail he will make a grand three-year-old. —Spirit of the Times.

Describing Firearm's record-breaking performance at Morris Park Tuesday the New York Sun said:

"The time made in the Matron race was smart enough to arouse comment, but it was promptly dwarfed by Firearm in the Manhattan Handicap over the same route. V. ter and Previous, the two top-weights, declined the issue, and Firearm ruled favorite, but the play on him was light, and Heli has closed in almost equal demand. Matanza, Toluca and Lady Lindsey were the other starters, and as all were reported to be right 'on edge,' the experts reached for their chronometers."

"If the watches did not break it was not Firearm's fault, as the handsome four-year-old son of Rayon d'Or—Fides came down the hill and through the stretch at a pace never before seen over the course or elsewhere. O'Leary sat so still and took matters so easily that many onlookers were deceived as to the pace until the figures were hung out. Then there was a general gasp of astonishment, followed by a hearty cheer as the regulars realized that the world's record had been knocked to pieces."

"The previous mark was 1:09, made by the mighty Domino in 1896 and tied by Banastar last May. Domino was only a two-year-old and shouldered 128 pounds; Banastar was a four-year-old with only 116 pounds, and full credit must be conceded to Firearm, as he had 120 pounds in the saddle, and won with such ease that he could have been ten lengths instead of two ahead of Heliobas at the line. It was a popular triumph for the Blemton cast-off and his astute young trainer, James Budea."

An incident of the racing at Oakland last Saturday is thus described by the San Francisco Examiner of Sunday: "Monroe Johnson (colored) had an argument with Blacksmith O'Rourke yesterday afternoon at the Oakland track. At first he got the worst of it, for O'Rourke punched him in the jaw, and tried to kick him as he lay prone on the asphalt pavement. After the fight was over the stewards ruled O'Rourke and his horses off the track."

"One of O'Rourke's string, The Fretter, was a starter in the handicap, the chief race of the afternoon. Two or three of the horses behaved very badly at the post. The Fretter being of a lively disposition, burst through the barrier once or twice. Johnson, thinking to restrain him, grabbed his bridle and kept him from running away several times. When the start was finally effected, The Fretter had the misfortune to get away badly. After the race, O'Rourke accused Johnson of holding his horse at the post. Monroe, somewhat bluntly it is true, told him he was a prevaricator. Hence the fight and the ruling of the stewards."

Chacornac's last work for the Matron had been so good that there seemed to be scarcely a possibility that he could lose. However, he had a recurrence of the trouble that interfered with his preparation for the Futurity, namely, bucked shins. Had the Futurity been deferred two or three days it is likely that Chacornac would have been an absentee from that event; but, fortunately, the trouble did not develop with him until after the race. The recurrence of the lameness, while not at all serious, was of sufficient importance to prevent the appearance of the colt in the big event yesterday.—Morning Telegraph.

Mr. L. O. Appleby's Knight of the Thistle arrived from England Tuesday. This horse was bought at auction by Huggins for Mr. Appleby for $3,050, and subsequently leased to Lord William Beresford. Huggins believed that he had not been properly trained, and the accuracy of his judgment is shown by the fact that Knight of the Thistle, among other good performances the past season, ran second in the Lincolnshire Handicap and won the Jubilee Stakes, worth about $12,000. Mr. Appleby has refused several big offers for Knight of the Thistle and will retire him to the stud. He is by Beauclerc—The Empress Maid and is a full brother to Lady Reecebery, a high class winner in England.

Next to the Futurity, which was worth $30,630 to the winner, and the Junior Champion, which was worth $18,320 to the winner, the Matron is the richest two-year-old event of the year. Its total value was $26,000, of which $17,000 went to the winner, $3,800 to the second and $2,200 to the third horse. Besides these divisions, Gen. W. H. Jackson, as the breeder of the winner, by Iroquois—Fairy, gets $1,500; August Belmont, as the breeder of Redpath, gets $1,000, and James R. Keene, as the breeder of Runaway Girl, gets $500. The latter is by the peerless Domino—Fair Vision, while Redpath is by Rayon d'Or—Red Girl.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Many good riders have been developed on the San Francisco tracks since racing on an extended scale was inaugurated there in 1892. Tod Sloan, Clawson, Spencer, H. Martin, Jenkins and Bullman among them. Now, as early as it is in the present racing season there, it is already claimed that two midgets, Walsh and Pastel, show every indication of soon achieving fame as good lightweight riders.

The following names have been registered with Messrs. Weatherby in England for American bred yearlings: By A. Covington—Twinkler, for bay colt, by Cavalier—Twinkle. By C. F. Dwyer—Shannon, for brown colt, by Lamp-lighter—Sweet Blossom, and Anthracite, for black colt, by Albert—Entricia.

The horse King Barleycorn, placed under the ban at Gravesend for running last one start and first the next, has been restored to good standing. He has started several times since his suspension, but only in stake races where he had previously been engaged.

"Cy" Mulkey, the veteran trainer, who for more than a year past has been one of the host of seekers for gold in Alaska, has returned to San Francisco in good health, but whether he brought back any of the yellow ore or not, has not been made public.

The California Jockey Club has issued a list of ten stakes to be decided after January 1. None of the stakes is worth less than $1,500, while the most valuable is valued at $10,000. Entries will close November 1.

A special dispatch from Detroit says that Hugh McCarran's stable left for Chicago Thursday.

GOOD RACING AT HAWTHORNE.

Owner J. Meagher, jockey N. Ray and the entire Canadian contingent connected with the owner of the jumper Marble were suspended by presiding judge Harry Kuhl yesterday at Hawthorne pending an investigation about the in and out running of Marble. The horse came to life with a start in yesterday's steeplechase and Mr. Kuhl's ruling was in line.

In Marble's recent races the horse has receded in the betting and has not shown quality or speed. But yesterday he was backed from 10 to 1 down to 8 to 1, had plenty of speed, and made the same horses that have heretofore been beating him look cheap.

The clever way in which Ray rode Marble was the feature of the day's racing. He rated the gelding nicely, aided him with skill at the fences and never made a move until the last obstruction had been cleared. Then he sent Marble along fast. He went to the front like a flash and won pulled up. Globe II., the natural favorite for the race, was the victim of a miserable ride and landed in third place. O'Brien on Globe II. rode as though the race was a seven days' walking match.

Out of the second race, at three-quarters of a mile for two-year-olds, came a close finish that set the crowd on fire. It was between Erla d'Or and Alice Turner. Both were well supported. Erla d'Or swung into the stretch with a comfortable lead, while Alice Turner was in the ruck and pocketed. About a furlong from the finish Alice Turner got clear and, coming like a flash, put Erla d'Or to a drive. The latter is a good, game filly, stood off Alice Turner's rush and won by a nose.

Tommy Burns beat the barrier and won the fifth race all the way with The Rush. The youngster won in such an impressive way that J. H. Smith thought he would like to have him and raised his price from $500 to $1,000. John Schorr Jr. bid $1,005 and retained the colt. Schorr did not stop here, either. To get even he claimed Yoloco for $700 and a selling race war is probably brewing.

That Tony Licalzi knew what he was about when he bought King Bermuda is evident. The King seems to be able to win whenever he is placed right, and the eight and one-half furlong race was a cake walk for him. He was the natural favorite with Burns up. Burns loafed along with him to the stretch and when he called on him the King went to the front without trouble. Eitholin finished second and Bishop Reed third.

Quite a bit of class got together in the closing mile condition race and Mizpah, with a lot the best of the weights, won as he pleased. He was ridden by Burns, was at a favorite's price and the win was a popular one.

A five furlong scramble for four-year-olds and upward is a rare thing these days, but such were the conditions of the first race which Hermoso, at 10 to 1, won in a gallop.

Bookmakers Hittick, Duckworth and Lauderman leave today for Cincinnati.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Judge J. J. Burke says of the amateur riders of Toronto: "The Toronto gentleman riders are far ahead of the average amateur riders in this country. This is not surprising, as they are almost constantly in the saddle. Such gentlemen as Bert Holland and Murray Hendrie would pretty nearly hold their own against professionals anywhere."

Mr. W. C. Whitney's racing colors have been registered with the English Jockey Club as "Eton blue, brown cap," with second colors of "Eton blue, brown belt and cap."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There was a rumor some time ago that Messrs.
Harness & Brossman had been offered $35,000
for Imp. Asked as to this, Mr. Brossman said:
"No, we have not received any offer for the mare, and moreover we would not entertain any offer. She is not for sale." That at all events has the right ring. Imp may have to go back home like a bobo, as best she can, but her owners think so much of her that money won't tempt them to part with her. She's a grand race-mare and she will carry with her wherever she may be the best wishes of American turfmen.—

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Modred—Fidelity.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving hard. Hermoso was well ridden, had clear sailing and plenty of speed. He came away like a gentleman on call in the stretch. Peter McCue ran his best race. He moved up rapidly on the outside and at the head of the stretch seemed to have a good chance, but under pressure at the end he tired badly. Marzella had no excuses. Wilson rode her cleverly. He dropped in behind the leaders on the far turn and waited to the stretch before he made a move. The filly was by this time all out and had nothing to respond with. After stepping up the first half in 47 seconds, Miss Lynnah stopped. Zufallig ran a good race. So did Del Paso II. Both finished stoutly.

Winner—B. f. by Purebred—Martia.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; the next four were also under full sail. Erelia d'Or was lucky and had to be to win. She was tiring fast at the end and barely lasted long enough. As the race was run Alice Turner was the best. She had a rough journey through the stretch, but was running great guns at the finish. Maharajah ran a good race and finished fast. Capron was poorly ridden. Florizar looked dingy at the head of the stretch, but hung at the end. Avenstoke must have a muddy track to do his best.

Winner—B. g. by Long Tail—Pisa.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving hard. Marble came off with a start and was well rid. Ray rated him nicely in a good position all the way, avoided all interference and made his run at the right time. When he gave Marble his head the gelding shot by the others easily. Three Forks ran a good race, considering the rough journey he had. O'Brien laid out of it too long with Globe II. and rode a generally bad race. Hueston on Gypsy Liver resorted to foul tactics throughout. He bumped and interfered with every horse within reach and came near throwing Three Forks at one time. Our Climate had a lot of speed but was beaten when he fell. So was Belly Lam. Menselek fenced well but seems to dislike a route. No damage resulted from the falls.

Winner—B. g. by Bermuda—Queen Isabella.
Off at the first break to a perfect start. Won easily at the end after a hard early drive. King Bermuda is in rare form and ran a good race. Burns rode him to perfection, too. He hugged the rail all the way and came through like a shot at the head of the stretch. From the furthest post home King Bermuda held the race safe. Elitholin, with a competent rider up, ran a nice race. He had bad luck, or otherwise he might have been a keen contender. Bishop Reed had a lot of speed. He is strictly a front runner and was used up by pacer-making. Eggart was short. As far as he went he ran well and can be marked for early action. Lillie W. made a strong bid on the far turn, but died away in the stretch. Tide was outclassed and finished where he belonged. Elitholin did not wear blinkers. He has worn them in all of his previous races.
Scratched—14746 Elidao, 107.

Winner—B. c. by Oddfellow—Unatress.
Post 12 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; hard drive for the place. The Rush beat the barrier and won all the way. This was by far the best race that The Rush ever ran on local tracks. Yoloco had the worst kind of racing luck. He seems to be a bad luck youngster. Shortly after the start he was badly interfered with and then he made up his ground too rapidly. Everything considered his race was as good as the winner's. The Monk made up ground steadily throughout and finished strong. The ride Man of Honor got ruined whatever chances he had. Clara Wooley suffered in the same way. Nettie Regent showed a lot of speed. So did Limond.

Post 20 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving hard. Mizpah had all the best of the weights and the rider and won as he pleased. He is in excellent form right now. Found acted badly at the post but eventually got a running start. She had a world of speed but perhaps was not keyed up for a bruising race like this. Tab her from now on. Allevi-ate ran a greatly improved race. Cherry Leaf is perhaps not at his best. The field was badly strung out at the finish. Diser bolted and refused to break.
Overweights—Omelia, 2 pounds; Allevi-ate, 1; Cherry Leaf, 1.
